

Time to Reflect

God Cares

Today or maybe yesterday and probably tomorrow you will have a problem. We all do. It seems that when we face a difficult and disappointing life challenge we tend to believe lies rather than the truth of God. The truth of the God who said he does not lie. The truth from the God who created all things. The truth. The truth is that God cares. People may not care about you and what you do but God cares. David in the Bible was going a tough time hiding from a king who was intent on killing him. The following is the Psalm he wrote in this time of uncertainty and fear.

Psalm 142 ~ I cry aloud to the Lord;...I pour out before Him my complaint; before Him I tell my trouble. When my spirit grows faint within me, it is You who watch over my way...Look and see, there is no one who is concerned for me. I have no refuge; no one cares for my life. I cry to You, Lord; I say, "You are my refuge." Listen to my cry, for I am desperate in need...Set me free from my prison. ~

God cares. Always remember that truth. Follow the words of God and do what God says in I Peter 5:7--"Cast all your anxiety on God because He cares for you." God cares even when all the people you expected to care don't. Let this be your comfort! God is watching over your way and He is your refuge. This is how you get a healthy soul full of eternal delight. Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today and forever (Hebrews 13:8). All things change in a temporal world but the Lord never does. God can be trusted and He is true to His word. Let this be your comfort! ~Laura
